JOSÉ ZUCCARDI MALBEC 2019

An evolution of Zuccardi Zeta

My father has always enjoyed the challenges. So in the year 2000, he began working on a new project: to achieve the best family wine. In the end, it was an objective that, beyond a particular wine, invited us to dream and motivated us to feel that in the family we could make great wines. With the 2002 vintage came the wine called Zeta, in which we were able to combine the spirit and the pioneer vision of the family. It was a blend that identified us a lot. A blend of Malbec - the most important variety in Argentina, with Tempranillo, the variety that communicated the visionary spirit of the Zuccardi. With the 2013 vintage, I thought a change was necessary to achieve a wine that could tell the evolution in the history of the family since the launch of Zeta, from an innovative look, with the name of my father. Jose Zuccardi is a mountain Malbec from vineyards located in the regions with more calcareous deposits of the Uco Valley. - Sebastián Zuccardi
